

Building
Assessment
Systems and Intervention Strategies for School Innovation (BASIS)
DuPage County Cohort
Beginning Summer 2010

Department of Educational Technology, Research and Assessment
815-753-9339

The BASIS program is a graduate certificate in assessment and evaluation of student performance, curriculum evaluation, and tiered intervention methods for use within the Response to Intervention (RtI) service provision model.

A new cohort is beginning this summer at the Multi-University Center located at 1010 Jorie Blvd., Oak Brook, IL.

Summer 2010

ETR 592 Special Topics in Research and Assessment

Mondays, 4:00 to 8:00 p.m., June 14 to August 2, 2010

ETR 519 Applied Educational Research

Wednesdays, 4:00 to 8:00 p.m., June 16 to August 4, 2010

Fall 2010

ETR 534 Dynamic Assessment for Students with High-Incidence Disabilities

TLRN 546 Interventions to Meet Student Needs in the General Classroom

Each course meets on alternating Mondays, 5:00 to 9:00 p.m., August 23 to December 12, 2010

Spring 2011

ETR 521 Statistics I

Alternating Mondays, 4:00 to 8:00 p.m., January to May, Dates TBD

ETR 587 Practicum in Educational Research and Evaluation

For more information and to apply to the program visit the BASIS website

(<http://www.cedu.niu.edu/etra/ere/basis.shtml>)

or contact the Department of Educational Technology, Research and Assessment, 815-753-9339, kwoodworth@niu.edu.

<http://www.cedu.niu.edu/etra/index.html> :: <http://www.grad.niu.edu/> ::
<http://www.reg.niu.edu/regrec/> :: 815-753-9321 Fax: 815-753-9388

Gabel Hall 208

The application for the Summer 2010 graduation must be completed in MyNIU by April 1, 2010.
Reminder: All official university correspondence including billing is now sent to your NIU Z-ID email account.

Forward, Together Forward
NIU Remembers