

COMMENDED STUDENTS IN THE 2008 NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Lake Forest High School announces that 17 students have been named by the National Merit Scholarship Program to the Commended List this year.

Commended students are being recognized for their exceptional academic promise demonstrated by their outstanding performance on the qualifying test used for program entry. They will not, however, continue in the competition for Merit Scholarship awards to be offered next spring.

About 34,000 Commended Students throughout the nation are being recognized for their exceptional academic promise. Commended Students placed among the top five percent of more than 1.4 million students who entered the 2008 competition by taking the 2006 PSAT/NMSQT.

The young people being named Commended Students have demonstrated outstanding academic potential by their strong performance in this highly competitive and rigorous program. They are:

John W. Alaimo
Benjamin M. Arnstein
Rochelle O. Bartholomew
James M. Beck
Sarah A. Benedict
