

CLUBS, ORGANIZATIONS, AND ACTIVITIES AT LAKE FOREST HIGH SCHOOL 2007-2008

(This list will be updated as new information is received. For current information, students should listen to the morning public address announcements and look for posted notices on the school's many bulletin boards. Also, many of these activities have an Edline site under the Activities menu which can be a useful source for current information.)

Art Club: In addition to their own ongoing art projects, Art Club members also help other organizations with their fundraisers by creating art pieces for their auctions, taking field trips to museums, and having guest artists come in to teach members new techniques.

Meetings: Every Thursday in Room 120E from 3:30 to 4:30 PM

Advisor: Ms. Debra Zare (dzare@d115.org)

Amplification: Amplification is LFHS's student-run music publication. Students write articles about a wide spectrum of musical genres: popular, rock, hip hop, jazz, classical, world, or any musical genre of interest to the student writer.

Meetings: Mondays as needed per issue, in Room 260 at 3:15 PM

Advisor: Mr. David Hawkins (dhawkin@d115.org)

Big Brothers/Big Sisters: Students are placed with elementary-aged students who would benefit from a "one-to-one" mentoring program. Activities include tutoring, games, and crafts. Students, along with their faculty supervisor, are bussed by LFHS to South School in North Chicago.

Meetings: Students must submit an application at the beginning of the school year and complete an interview process. Selected "Bigs" must give a full year commitment to meet once a week with their "Littles" on Wednesdays from 3:15 to 5:15 PM from October through May.

Advisor: Ms. Erin O'Donnell (eodonne@d115.org)

Chess Club: Club members are taught chess strategy. During the Chess Team season, members compete against other schools in official matches and participate in the IHSA State Team Chess Tournament.

Meetings: Every Wednesday and Friday in the FLRC (Room 306) after school until 4:30 PM or so

Advisors: Mr. Phil Woodruff (pwoodru@d115.org)

Mr. Brad Ruda (bruda@d115.org)

CROYA: Students are aided in communicating their needs or problems and CROYA then provides programs to meet these youth-identified needs in conjunction with other resources. Activities include meetings, annual "Donut Bowl: night, topic nights, and much more.

Meetings: Every Wednesday night at CROYA Student Union (400 Hastings Road, Lake Forest) from 7:00 to 8:00 PM

Advisor: Mr. Chris Torrance (torrancc@cityoflakeforest.com)

CROYA/Focus: Focus is a student-run organization interested in providing an alternative for those who wish to pursue a lifestyle free of drugs and alcohol. Focus sponsors alcohol-free social events for high school students on weekends; provides a peer mentorship program between high school students and middle school students; and tries to promote awareness of the hazards of alcohol and drug abuse. Focus members seek to provide an alternate social scene to that of drugs and alcohol.

Meetings: Every other Tuesday night at CROYA from 7:00 to 8:00 PM

Advisors: Ms. Joanne Yorro (yorroj@cityoflakeforest.com)

Mr. Chris Torrance (torancc@cityoflakeforest.com)

CROYA Service and Leadership: Students are provided with an atmosphere that caters to their social and psychological needs as young adults through alternative activities and service.

Activities include retreats, workshops, Senior Citizen dinners, and events at Westmoreland and The Center for Enriched Living.

Meetings: Every first Wednesday of the month during lunch periods in the LFHS cafeteria

Advisor: Ms. Joanne Yorro (yorroj@cityoflakeforest.com)

Cum Laude Society: The Lake Forest High School chapter of The Cum Laude Society, a national organization, honors scholastic achievement. Election to membership is granted to Juniors and Seniors by a faculty committee on the basis of outstanding academic achievement as evidenced by cumulative GPA of 5.195 for Juniors and 4.995 for Seniors. Induction is held in conjunction with the National Honor Society and is usually held in April, preceded by a dinner.

Advisors: Mr. David Miller (dmiller@d115.org)

Mr. David Hawkins (dhawkins@d115.org)

Debate Club: Members participate with the LFHS Debate Team in the Illinois Congressional Debate Association, National Forensic League, and Junior State of America Tournaments. Tournaments are as close as Highland Park and as far away as Washington, DC. Active members have improved their speaking skills, learned about current events, developed an appreciation for the fine art of politicking, and enjoyed the comradery of teammates and competitors. The team is active all year and students may join at any time.

Meetings: Every Tuesday in Room 240 from 3:20 to 4:15 PM

Advisors: Mr. Evan Richards (erichar@d115.org)
Mr. Chris Bryant (cbryant@d115.org)

Environmental Club: Club members are provided opportunities to realize their goals of environmental service. Most projects are student initiated. This year's proposed activities include: the LFHS Courtyard Garden upkeep, Ride Bike to School Day with free cocoa and snacks, Fairchild Challenge through the Chicago Botanic Garden, recycling solutions for LFHS, beach cleanup through the Great Lakes Alliance, and Earth Week celebrations.

Meetings: Every Friday in Room 308 at 7:00 AM

Advisors: Ms. Mary Beth Nawor (mnawor@d115.org)
Ms. Ariel Landvick (alandvi@d115.org)

Fall Intramural Sports: Fall intramural sports currently include flag football and Frisbee. The fee is $20 for the football and $10 for Frisbee. Students must listen to the Public Address System announcements at the beginning of the season and form teams.

Meetings: Flag football plays 2 days per week and Frisbee plays 1 day per week.

Advisor: Mr. Bill Donlon (bdonlon@d115.org)

Forensics: Forensics is a competitive speech and drama club. Members of the team compete in any of 13 individual events which includes speaking events, such as Original Oratory and Prose Reading, and acting events, such as Duet Acting and Interpretation. Competitions are held on Saturdays from November through January.

Meetings: Every Monday in Room 55 from 3:20 to 5:00 PM for a business meeting and coaching session. All members are required to meet with their coaches at least once each week (usually after school) to work on their pieces. Advisors are flexible in working around student's other extracurricular activities. This year, Wednesday practices are dedicated to practice time for club members new to Forensics.

Advisors: Ms. Karen Topham (ktopham@d115.org)
Mr. Joe Pulio (jpulio@d115.org)
Ms. Jennifer Eccleston (jeccles@d115.org)
Mr. Lance Ferges (lferges@d115.org)

Forest Scout: The Forest Scout is a student-run newspaper published monthly by Lake Forest High School. Writers, photographers, and cartoonists are encouraged to join. Students have the opportunity to become editors as upperclassmen.

Meetings: Every Friday in Room 339 at 7:25 PM

Advisors: Mr. Denis Sheeran (dsheera@d115.org)
Mr. Keith Freedman (kfreedm@d115.org)

Forest Trails: Forest Trails is responsible for creating and publishing the LFHS yearbook. Interested students who are able to dedicate the majority of their extracurricular time to yearbook make up the editorial staff, usually one editor-in-chief and several co-editors. Students who are involved in other extra-curricular activities can also participate by being paired with their peer editors and working on specific pages and themes throughout the year as these meeting times are flexible.

Meetings: Meetings for general group members are Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday. Students are allowed to choose which days of the week best fit their schedule and can choose either two weekday mornings before school or one afternoon after school. Entire member meetings are held once a month on various dates. Editors meet with advisors every Monday afternoon and are expected to dedicate as many mornings and afternoons as need to ensure completion of the book. Meetings are held in the Yearbook Office located in the southeast corner of the Library.

Advisors: Ms. Elizabeth Christofylakis (echrist@d115.org)
Ms. Kerry Little (klittel@d115.org)
Mr. Keith Freedman (kfreedm@d115.org)

Gamer's Club: Gamer's Club provides a social outlet for students who are into gaming. Members can play role-playing games such as Dungeons & Dragons, card games such as Magic the Gathering or Munchkin, or various board games such as Risk or Settlers of Catan.

Meetings: Every Friday in Room 224 from 3:15 to 5:00 PM

Advisors: Mr. Matt Lowry (mlowry@d115.org)
Mr. Ryan Abrams (rabrams@d115.org)

Global Connections: Club members participate in projects that raise awareness of international issues and benefit specific global concerns. The specific projects for this year include working with the Ghana Fishing Project and Heifer International.

Meetings: Meeting times fluctuate, contact advisor for specifics.

Advisor: Ms. Kathy O'Hara (kohara@d115.org)

Human Rights Club: This club was created to foster and develop an understanding of human rights in the 21st century among club members and the school community. Each year the club chooses a human rights topic/issue to promote understanding and awareness among the student body. Last year's topic was Human Rights in Tibet. The club held many fundraisers and projects to make a donation to the Tibetan Children's Village in Dhamsala, India and sponsored a guest speaker from Tibet who shared his experiences as a refugee to LFHS students. This year's topic will be determined shortly and will also be supported by fund raisers and a guest speaker.

Meetings: Every Tuesday in Room 208 from 3:10 PM to 4:00 PM

Advisor: Ms. Kelly McKee (kmckee@d115.org)

Improv Troupe: Troupe members organize activities to help each other with their improvisational skills.

Meetings: Every Wednesday in Room 50 at 3:30 PM. Meetings may be canceled while other shows are in production due to conflicts.

Advisors: Mr. Brad Balonick (bbaloni@d115.org)

Mr. Scott Krajniak (skrajni@d115.org)

International Club: Club arranges opportunities for students to experience cultures outside of their own through art, film, food, and activities.

Meetings: Every other Wednesday after school in Room 302

Advisor: Ms. Heather Song (hsong@d115.org)

International Thespian Society: As students work on theatrical productions during their high school career, they receive points as determined by the adult supervisors. Each point represents 10 hours of quality work in a theater production. Students are inducted into ITS upon receiving 20 points. The induction ceremony is held in conjunction with the end of the year banquet and Senior Roast.

Meetings: The club tries to meet once a month for social and theater-oriented activities, the meeting place being determined by the activity planned. Membership in ITS is not required to participate in the activities.

Advisor: Mr. Brad Balonick (bbaloni@d115.org)

Japanese Animation Club: This club meets weekly to gather students who are fans of "Anime," animated films which originate in Japan. Students watch and discuss a wide range of Anime genres. The club also holds several "Manga" meetings each year to read and discuss Japanese graphic novels.

Meetings: Every Tuesday in Room 271 from 3:20 to 4:30 PM

Advisor: Ms. Cheryl Hawkins (chawkin@d115.org)

LFHS B&B (Books & Breakfast): LFHS Books & Breakfast is organized by the Library staff and usually meets once a month. The staff chooses from a wide variety of award-winning fiction and non-fiction works. This year, books will be chosen from the 2008 Abraham Lincoln Award List. All students and staff are invited to participate when they can.

Meetings: Usually once a month in the Library either before school with breakfast goodies provided or after school with afternoon treats provided. Students should listen to PA announcements and look for posters to learn of upcoming featured book and the date and time for the book discussion.

Advisor: Kerry Little (klittel@d115.org)

Additional Library Activities: The LFHS Library staff is always busy thinking up new ways to engage students in reading and writing! Teen Read Week, held from Monday, October 15 through Friday, October 19, has as its theme: LOL@Your Library. Many fun and funny activities are planned each day to make students laugh out loud, including Comic Book Day, LOL Scavenger Hunt, and Mummify Your Teachers (winning teams can choose a week of campus parking or free lunches). Nanowrimo Club (National Novel Writing Month), held during November, helps LFHS students to join ordinary people around the world in tackling the fun, frightening, and totally unforgettable challenge of bashing out a 50,000-word novel in one month! Interested students can meet on Thursdays in November in the Library Classroom after school.

Latin Club: Club plans monthly events for Latin students to get together socially and have some fun doing activities related to Latin and the Romans. Scheduled events for Fall 2007 are: October, Olive Garden Banquet; November, movie night with movie relating to the ancient Romans or Italy; December, celebration of the Saturnalia (an ancient Roman winter holiday). Club members also participate in the Illinois Certamen League, which is a jeopardy style contest (all questions are about Latin grammar, vocabulary, mythology, or history) against local high schools.

Meetings: No meetings, just the monthly events which are announced in the Latin classes. Although most participants in the events are Latin students, non-Latin students have also been known to participate!

Advisors: Ms. Ariel Landvick (alandvi@d115.org)

Ms. Jamie Reuben (jreuben@d115.org)

Math Team: The Math Team competes in varying mathematics competitions including North Suburban Math League and ICTM Math Contests.

Meetings: Every Monday in the Math Resource Center at 3:15 PM

Advisors: Ms. Laura Gibson (lgibson@d115.org)

Mr. Steve Aronson (saronso@d115.org)

Men's Club: Men's Club members are dedicated to performing community service activities that often have a physical requirement. These young men help with a lot of the "heavy lifting" occasionally needed by just about every community, church, or service organization in the Lake Forest/Lake Bluff area. A major activity for this year is the Youth Build project with Habitat for Humanity.

Meetings: Every Wednesday in Room 334 at 7:15 AM

Advisor: Mr. Brian Runft (brunft@d115.org)

Model United Nations: Participants try to develop solutions to the world's most significant problems by simulating the United Nations. Problems are worked out through diplomacy and debate with each club member representing a different country and point of view. Club attends several conferences during the year to compete with other schools.

Meetings: Every Tuesday night in Room 207 at 6:30 PM

Advisor: Mr. Greg Simmons (gsimmon@d115.org)

National Honor Society: The National Honor Society recognizes outstanding high school students who have demonstrated excellence in the areas of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Students are considered for membership starting at the end of the first semester of junior year. Applicants must have a cumulative grade point average of 4.5, have at least 30 hours of volunteer service dating from their sophomore year or before, and have strong leadership skills and character as evaluated by LFHS faculty and staff. Once inducted into NHS, members continue to contribute their leadership and service to many community organizations such as GLASA, LEAD, PADS, and Catholic Charities' "Adopt-a-Family" program. Members are required to volunteer at least 20 hours of service per year.

Meetings: NHS members can attend, on the first Tuesday of each month, either the morning meeting from 7:15 to 7:45 AM in the Dave Miller Theater or the afternoon meeting at 3:15 to 3:45 PM in the Freshman/Sophomore Study Hall

Advisors: Dr. Jim Gantt (jgantt@d115.org)

Ms. Tamar Cooney (tcooney@d115.org)

Orchesis Club: Students with dance experience work together to choreograph and present several performance pieces to the public and for service projects.

Meetings: Practice times vary but are generally on a Monday, Tuesday, and/or Thursday in the CROYA Dance Studio at 3:30 PM

Advisor: Ms. Kathy O'Hara (kohara@d115.org)

Peer Training 1 (CROYA and LFHS Social Workers): Students become more skilled in their ability to understand themselves and others through becoming active listeners, better communicators, and improve their problem solving skills. Toward the beginning of each semester, CROYA sets us a table for sign-ups during the lunch period for 2 to 3 days. From there, manageable (number-wise) groups are formed.

Meetings: Once a week on a Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday during their lunch periods (in vacant classrooms) for 10 weeks in the Fall and 10 weeks in the Spring. Students must attend at least 9 of the meetings.

Advisors: Ms. Joanne Yorro (yorroj@cityoflakeforest.com)

Mr. John Maher (jmaher@d115.org)

Peer Training 2 (CROYA and LFHS Social Workers): Provides students that have completed Peer Training 1 an opportunity to further their skills. Once students have completed Peer Training 2, they are eligible to peer mentor Peer Training 1 and to lead various workshops.

Meetings: Once a week on a Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday during their lunch periods for 10 weeks in the Fall and 10 weeks in the Spring. Students must attend at least 9 of the meetings. Although Peer 1 and 2 are usually offered both semesters, this year, due to space restrictions, only Peer 1 is being offered first semester.

Advisors: Ms. Joanne Yorro (yorroj@cityoflakeforest.com)

Mr. John Maher (jmaher@d115.org)

Peer Tutoring: Students volunteer to help fellow students in improving their academic and organizational skills. Tutors must have proficiency in the academic area in which they wish to tutor. Students tutor LFHS and middle school students on an individually scheduled basis.

Meetings: There is an informational meeting at the beginning of the school year. From that meeting, tutors are matched with students needing help as requests for tutoring arise. Students who missed the first meeting may contact the advisor if they wish to be a potential tutor.

Advisor: Ms. Maggie Johnson (mjohnso@d115.org)

Red Cross Club: Students in this LFHS chapter of the Red Cross provide relief to victims of single family emergencies as well as community, national, or international disasters. Activities include blood drives, fundraising for disasters, CPR/AED training, disaster training, and nursing home visits.

Meetings: Short meetings on Tuesdays in the Nurse's Office directly after school

Advisor: Ms. Diane Bower (dbower@d115.org)

SADD (Students Against Destructive Decisions): Students are educated in a variety of topics to enable them to make good decisions for themselves. Activities include the "Clothesline Project", which promotes awareness of abuse victims; "Red Ribbon Week", which promotes awareness of drug and alcohol abuse; "Prom Awareness Week", which encourages a safe Prom experience; and the display of the familiar signs which line several of our community's thoroughfares during the winter holiday season.

Meetings: Every Tuesday in Room 264 at 7:20 AM

Advisor: Ms. Jennifer Edgington (jedging@d115.org)

Sailing Club: The club is an inclusive subset of the Lake Forest Sailing Team coached by Joey Harris and sponsored by the Lake Forest Recreation Department. The Team sails out of Lake Forest Beach in the Fall and Spring. Many of the sailors compete at regional, national, and even Olympic events but membership is open to any students interested in the sport from beginner to Olympic Champ. The goal of the club is to share experiences, opportunities, knowledge, and passion with sailors of all levels.

Meetings: Meeting times and places fluctuate due to room availability, need, and the busy schedules of the sailors. Club hopes to have some clinics and social events in the off season.

Advisor: Ms. Barb Papp (bpapp@d115.org)

Scholastic Bowl: Academic teams that compete in the North Suburban Conference and in Illinois state playoffs. There is a Varsity and a Freshman-Sophomore team.

Meetings: Every Wednesday in Room 207 at 3:30 PM

Advisors: Ms. Andrea Lemke (alemke@d115.org)
Mr. Mark Kuhl (mkuhl@d115.org)

Science Olympiad: Takes all areas of science (biology, chemistry, environmental science, and physics) and turns it into a competition. Team competes with high schools from all around the region and state. Students get the opportunity to learn through a process of inquiry by designing, building, testing, and re-designing devices and structures to be used to solve a given problem. Students are also tested on their knowledge of a broad spectrum of specialties in science.

Meetings: Every Thursday in Room 215 from 3:15 to about 4:30 PM

Advisors: Ms. Lena Kopecky (lkopeck@d115.org)
Mr. Nitin Patel (npatel@d115.org)

Ski and Snowboard Club: Club promotes ski and snowboard awareness. During meetings, members study film, discuss downhill techniques, tricks, best ski areas, and best equipment. And when the snow finally comes, we hit the slopes!

Meetings: Thursdays in Room 231 at 3:15 PM

Advisor: Mr. Kurt Schuessler (kschues@d115.org)

STRIVE (Students Teaching Responsibility in Volunteer Efforts): Students become part of "service teams" that help with specific volunteer activities in the community and at LFHS. New projects come up continually throughout the school year. Past activities include manning the Lake County Recycling Center and working with middle school students on the bike path replanting project.

Meetings: Monthly meetings vary in time and location, contact advisor for specifics.

Advisor: Ms. Kathy O'Hara (kohara@d115.org)

Student Council: Student Council is made up of about 70 elected students. The members meet twice a week, once as individual classes and once with all Student Council members combined. As a group, the classes work together to do many activities throughout the year. These include Homecoming festivities, the Winter Dance, and many other service projects. Each class also has specific responsibilities. Freshmen and Sophomore Student Council focus on service and leadership; the Junior Student Council is in charge of Prom; and the Senior Student Council concentrates on senior activities such as the class graduation gift and the Bike and Bake Sale.

Meetings: Combined Student Council meetings are held every Thursday in the David Miller Theater at 7:15 AM. Individual class meetings are determined within each group.

Overall Advisors: Ms. Laura Clegg (lclegg@d115.org)
Ms. Melissa Doucette (mdoucet@d115.org)

Senior Advisor: Ms. Carolyn Konz (ckonz@d115.org)

Junior Advisor: Ms. Jennifer Knight (jknight@d115.org)

Freshmen Advisor: Ms. Melissa Doucette (mdoucet@d115.org)

Student to Student (STS): Club members work to make all students feel comfortable at LFHS, especially new students and incoming Freshmen. Activities include mentoring new students, giving tours to new families, aiding in book buy-back, and assisting with Freshmen Orientation.

Meetings: Monthly meetings are usually scheduled for the second Wednesday at either 7:15 AM or 3:15 PM in the Library Classroom. Additional meetings are scheduled when major events are being organized. Club officers meet more frequently to plan. Members are encouraged to listen to the daily announcements for meeting time updates.

Advisor: Megan Miles (mmiles@d115.org)

Technical Crew: Tech Crew handles all of the lighting and stage requirements needed for producing LFHS's theatrical works. No previous experience is necessary; the advisors and student technical directors provide all of the hands-on training. All that is required is the attendance of crew members at the work sessions, rehearsals, and performances, if needed. As show time nears, the time commitment increases although accommodations can be made for a student's involvement in other extracurricular activities or family events as long as advisors are notified in advance.

Meetings: Usually Saturday from 9:30 to 12:00 and then from 1:00 to 4:00, with the traditional "going out to lunch" in between; and Wednesdays after school until 5:30. Mandatory attendance on Mondays after a performance week for set strike.

Advisors: Mr. Dave Miller (dmiller@d115.org)
Mr. Brad Balonick (bbaloni@d115.org)

Winter Intramurals: Intramural basketball usually starts in late November or early December. Players need to submit a team roster of 7 to 10 players. There is a team fee of $75. Play is usually scheduled on Sunday nights from 6:00 PM to 9:30 PM. Intramural bowling usually starts the week before Thanksgiving and goes for 11 weeks, not including Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's, and final exams. There are three on a team plus one alternate. Only the first 26 teams formed will be included. Bowling is at Bertrand's in Waukegan (Green Bay and Washington) on Wednesdays starting a 3:50 PM and usually ending at 5:30 PM. Last year's fee per team was $165. Teams must have their own transportation.

Advisor: Basketball -- Jim Thiel (jthiel@d115.org)
Bowling – Lori Stoller (lstolle@d115.org)

Women's Club: Female students concentrate on women's issues and causes and participate in ways to better the lives of women. Past activities include car washes, ornament sales, visits to hospitals and senior housing, and baking for women's shelters. This year's major project will be participating in Youth Build for Habitat for Humanity.

Meetings: Meeting times vary, but usually every other Wednesday in Room 306 at 7:20 AM

Advisor: Ms. Marni Levinson (mlevins@d115.org)

YAK: (Youth Activities Council) is a planning board of LFHS students who provide, on a school-wide basis, service opportunities for students. Annual activities include: winter coat drive, faculty Christmas party, Project Linus, and the Shields Township Food Pantry.

Meetings: Meeting times vary, contact advisor for specifics.

Advisor: Ms. Kathy O'Hara (kohara@d115.org)

Young Idea: Young Idea is LFHS's art and literary magazine. Students of all ages who love writing and art are encouraged to become part of the staff of this award winning magazine. Young Idea encourages all students to submit art and literature to the magazine, whether they choose to be a part of the staff or not. From September through February, Young Idea meets on Thursdays after school in the Public Room to critique the pieces that have been submitted to the magazine and provide feedback for the authors. Students are welcome to join the discussions when they are able, and may come later in the Fall after their sport season or other Fall activity is over. From the end of March until early May, the staff works daily after school until 5:30 laying out the magazine using the computer program In Design. Young Idea staff members must commit to coming daily for this portion of the work.

Meetings: See above explanation.

Advisors: Ms. Diane Clark (dclark@d115.org)

Ms. Margaret Forst (mforst@d115.org)
